

Bo Berndtsson

Partner – Lawyer

PROFILE

I have more than 30 years experience from Swedish and international business law, both from law firms and from working in Swedish multinational companies.

I have extensive and practical experience from evaluating and mitigating business risks and from building, implementing and running compliance programs in areas relating to business ethics, anti-corruption, competition law and export control. I also have solid experience from conducting internal investigations of potential misconduct, focused on helping companies managing and mitigating risks in a structured and wise manner.

In addition, I work with corporate governance, responsible sales, human rights as well as other complex challenges facing companies today. I thrive on helping companies build sustainable and systematic ways of working to mitigate business risks and to build long-term viable and successful businesses.
